

Ecclesiastes

- Author: Solomon
- Subject: the meaning of life
- Much dispute over authorship since 16th century.
- Before that, everyone agreed on Solomon.
- Many statements can be made to contradict each other if they are stretched beyond their contexts.
- Generalizations should not be taken too far.
- Read it as a book, not a collection of one-liners.

Ecclesiastes 1

- Vanity is vainness, not exaggerated self-worth
- What advantage does man have? (3 – 11)
 - People come and go
 - Nature goes on and on
 - People cannot take in all in or tell it all
 - There is nothing new under the sun
 - No one will remember what we do
- Proposed Goal 1: Seeking wisdom (12 – 18)
 - Seeking wisdom is an affliction
 - Wisdom cannot fix things
 - Wisdom and knowledge just bring pain

Ecclesiastes 2

- Proposed Goal 2: Pleasure (1 – 11)
 - Laughter is madness
 - Pleasure accomplishes nothing
 - Accumulating possessions and indulging the senses was only temporarily rewarding.
- Proposed Goal 3: Wisdom versus folly (12 – 23)
 - Wisdom is better, but all die.
 - Neither is remembered.
 - The inheritor may be a fool
- Proposed Goal 3: Enjoy your work (24 – 26)
 - God gives, so labor is not the goal

Ecclesiastes 3

- Conclusion 1: No joy without God (2:25)
- Conclusion 2: Everything has its time (3:1 – 11)
- Conclusion 3: God set eternity in our hearts (3:11)
- Conclusion 4: But we cannot know all (3:11)
- Conclusion 5: Just be happy (3:12 – 22)
 - Rejoice and do good, they are gifts from God
 - God made everything exactly right, so fear Him
 - Justice will prevail in the end
 - Everyone dies, no one knows the future
 - So just be happy in what you do.

Ecclesiastes 4

- Observations:
- Oppression ruins life (1 – 3)
 - Rivalry accomplishes nothing (4)
 - The fool wastes his life (5)
